Director's Meeting

Monday, 27 August 1951

25X1

Mr. Jackson brought up the question of reallocation of space in the Administration Building. Mr. Wisner will want eight assistants, exclusive of secretaries. Mr. [redacted] will arrange for the appropriate moves in consultation with Mr. Jackson.

Mr. Dulles reported that there would be an NSC Senior Staff meeting this afternoon in regard to the JCS comments on the [redacted] paper. Mr. Jackson and Mr. Wisner will attend this.

Mr. Jackson believes that the next move is up to the Defense Department and that Defense and JCS must sort themselves out. DCI remarked that one of the first considerations should be to see if we can get rid of any of our commitments. Mr. Jackson doubts it and feels that it would be a good lever.

Mr. Dulles reported that Mr. Bohlen suggested that we send someone to [redacted]. The DCI suggested that we draft [redacted] and said that he would call him.

Mr. Dulles brought up the question as to whether we were facing a serious crises in September. The DCI believes that this may be so. Mr. Dulles will draw up a draft memorandum for the DCI informing our field representatives of this feeling and suggesting the development of a special code word for Russian intentions.

Mr. Dulles reminded the DCI that we had not received a reply from General Twining in regard to aircraft. When this reply has been received, Mr. Wisner will discuss the matter with Gen. Cabeil.
